COMPLAINT FOR TRADEMARK INFRINGEMENT AND VIOLATIONS OF THE LANHAM ACT

Plaintiff Bravado International Group Merchandising Services, Inc., files this complaint against defendants, alleging as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This action arises under the Lanham Trademark Act 15 U.S.C. §§ 1051 et seq. (the "Lanham Act"). Accordingly, this Court has federal question jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1221 and 28 U.S.C. §§ 1338(a), (b). Venue in this district is proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b).

PARTIES

2. Bravado International Group Merchandising Services, Inc. ("Plaintiff") is a California corporation with its principal place of business in Los Angeles, California.

3. Defendants John Does 1-100, Jane Does 1-100 and XYZ Company who are sued herein under fictitious names because their true names and capacities are unknown at this time. This complaint will be amended when their true names and capacities are ascertained.

4. Upon information and belief, the defendants will be present in and about the District of Massachusetts in connection with the claims asserted below and are or will be subject to the jurisdiction of this Court.

5. Defendants, and each of them, are individuals and business entities who, upon information and belief, are acting in concert and active participation with each other in committing the wrongful acts alleged herein. Defendants John Does 1-100, Jane Does 1-100, and XYZ Company are hereinafter referred to collectively as "Defendants."

THE BACKGROUND OF THE ACTION

6. Plaintiff is engaged in the manufacture, distribution and sale of various types of merchandise sold and distributed at concerts and at retail stores of musical performers, including, but not limited to tour books, T-shirts, jerseys, sweatshirts, caps, buttons and posters (collectively "Tour Merchandise") which embody the trademarks, service marks, likenesses, logos and other indicia of performers.

7. "Guns N' Roses" (the "Group") is the trademark used by a musical group in connection with their performing, recording, merchandising and other related goods in all aspects of the entertainment industry and to distinguish their services from all other such artists. The Group has used its marks in connection with their recording, performing and merchandising services for approximately 30 years. The Group has obtained for their "Guns N' Roses" trademark US Federal Registration No. 2035815 for International Class ("IC") 025 clothing, namely, T-shirts, shirts, hats, caps, bandannas, sweatpants, and thermal shirts; Federal Registration No. 1766309, IC 041 entertainment services; namely, performances by a musical group; and Federal Registration No 1762599, IC 009 for prerecorded video and audio tapes, prerecorded phonograph records and prerecorded compact discs all featuring music. All of these marks are incontestable.

7. Pursuant to an agreement between the Group and Plaintiff (the "Agreement"), Plaintiff possesses the exclusive right to utilize all trademarks, service marks, likenesses, logos and other indicia of the Group (collectively, the "Group's Trademarks") on and in connection with Tour Merchandise ("Authorized Tour Merchandise") sold and offered for sale in the vicinity of the Group's present North American tour (the "Tour").

8. The Group has used its Group's Trademarks to identify officially authorized goods and services in interstate commerce and to distinguish his marks from those of others by, among other things, prominently displaying the Group's Trademarks on recording covers and merchandise, including T-shirts and other apparel.

9. The Group has a decidedly strong and loyal following among those who attend popular music concerts and record buyers. The Group has appeared in concerts at major arenas and stadiums in the United States, and throughout the world and has been seen and heard in concert by millions of popular music enthusiasts. The Group has sold million units of recordings worldwide.

10. As a result of the foregoing, each of the Group's Trademarks has developed and now possesses secondary and distinctive meaning to purchasers of merchandise bearing any or all of the Group's Trademarks. Plaintiff and the Group annually realize substantial income from the sale of the Authorized Tour Merchandise bearing the Group's Trademarks.

11. On July 19, and 20, 2016 at Gillette Stadium in Foxboro, Massachusetts, the Group will perform (the "Concerts"). Authorized Tour Merchandise bearing any or all of the Group's Trademarks will be sold throughout the United States in connection with the Tour, including at the Concert.

DEFENDANTS' UNLAWFUL CONDUCT

12. On information and belief, Defendants, also known as "Bootleggers" will sell and distribute unauthorized, infringing T-shirts, jerseys, caps and/or other merchandise bearing any or all of the Group's Trademarks (the "Infringing Merchandise" or "Bootleg Merchandise") in the vicinity of the Concerts, before, during and after their performance, and at subsequent concerts during the Tour. The tour has recently begun and Defendant Bootleggers have already appeared selling their Infringing Merchandise.

13. The Infringing Merchandise is of the same general appearance as Plaintiff's Merchandise and is likely to cause confusion among prospective purchasers. Defendants' Infringing Merchandise is not authorized by the Group or Plaintiff.

14. The Infringing Merchandise sold and to be sold by Defendants is generally of inferior quality. The sale of such merchandise has injured and is likely to injure the reputation of the Group which has developed by virtue of his performances and the reputation for high quality associated with Plaintiff and Authorized Tour Merchandise.

15. The aforesaid acts by Defendants and others are likely to cause the purchasing public to believe that the sale of such Infringing Merchandise is authorized, sponsored or approved by the Group and/or Plaintiff and that such Infringing Merchandise is subject to the same quality control and regulation required by the Group and/or Plaintiff, despite the fact that this is not true. It also injures Group and Plaintiff in that Defendants do not have to pay any royalty for these unlawful sales.

16. The aforesaid manufacture, distribution and sale of Infringing Merchandise bearing the trademarks, service marks, likenesses, logos and other indicia of the Group constitutes a false designation of the source of origin of such goods and falsely describes and represents such merchandise. The use by Defendants and others of the Group's Trademark also constitutes an attempt to palm off and appropriate to themselves the Group's and Plaintiff's exclusive rights therein.

17. Upon information and belief, Defendants have and will continue to engage in such infringing activities in this state and elsewhere in interstate commerce and are likely to continue such activities throughout the Tour, to the great injury of Plaintiff and the Group.

18. Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law and will suffer irreparable harm and damage as a result of the aforesaid acts, in an amount presently incalculable.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF
(Violation of the Lanham Act)

19. Plaintiff realleges each allegation set forth above.

20. By reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff hereby asserts a claim against Defendants for injunctive and monetary relief pursuant to Section 43(a) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a), with regards to the false designation of origin and false descriptions and representations in commerce of Defendants' Unauthorized Merchandise.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF
(Infringement of Registered Trademarks)

21. Plaintiff realleges each allegation set forth above.

22. By reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff hereby asserts a claim against Defendants for injunctive and monetary relief pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1114(b) with respect to Defendants' infringement of the registered marks.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, plaintiff, Bravado International Group Merchandising Services, Inc., seeks relief against Defendants as follows:

A. As to All Claims For Relief, that Defendants, their agents, servants, employees, officers, attorneys, successors and assigns, and all persons acting in concert with them, be enjoined in this and all other judicial districts in the United States, preliminarily during the course of this litigation and permanently from: 1) manufacturing, distributing, selling, offering for sale, holding for sale or advertising any products, merchandise or goods bearing the name, trademark, or likeness of the Group or any colorable variation or imitation thereof; and 2) representing that any products, merchandise or goods manufactured, distributed, sold, held for sale or advertised by them is sponsored or authorized by Plaintiff in this district or in any other district in which Plaintiff seeks to enforce this Court's injunction order.

B. As to All Claims For Relief, that this Court order the United States Marshal, the local and state police or sheriff, off duty officers of the same, authorized agents of Plaintiff, and/or any persons acting under their supervision to seize and impound any and all Infringing Merchandise which the Defendants attempt to sell, distribute or hold for sale at, within or in the vicinity of the arenas at which the Group is performing, whether this occurs before, during or after the concerts on the Tour.

C. That Defendants deliver up for destruction any and all Infringing Merchandise.

D. As to All Claims For Relief, that Defendants pay to Plaintiff damages in an amount to be determined.

E. As to All Claims For Relief, that Plaintiff be awarded its costs, attorney's fees and such other and further relief as the Court deems to be just and proper.
